Update of RFQ for Downtown Redevelopment project

Ms. O'Malley contacted the developers (total of 17) who picked up RFQ's (90% of them) to discuss the interest level and whether there was a need for more time.

The response was in favor of pushing back the RFQ return date. The reason is the economy and the financial crisis in existence.

A number of developers have been talking about creative ways in developing the downtown, such as multiple developers working together.

Attorney Coppola stated there are no legal ramifications with extending the deadline.
